Dear Donald,

If I could spell Pinocchio, I'd tell you I don't have a nose like this, but that mine is just constantly getting into the affairs of others.

You probably had a note from Larry, but if you didn't you see I am trying to play "Dear Abby."

Next, I tried to get the Rudes, and learned they had gone to Fred's to attend a rather unique presentation at Germantown (I think) and Margaret called me when they got home. I told her you were wondering about the Grange Hall, and she said she would bring it up at the next meeting which won't be until the fourth Thursday in Feb. They didn't have one this month, due to the weather. I asked about the price, and she said she thought ten dollars, but wanted to remind you there is no water there, and the members are too old to put on food. That is about all I asked about.

Then the next question was about the school at Aldenville, but she wasn't sure of the date it closed, but will let me know when she finds out, but that I'll send to Robert.
